Do you know the Zen bus?

The Zen bus. It's a bus that you can travel to far away places at a good pace. I got in and tried to doze off. Does this mean I was tired? No much, but I wanted to close my eyes and just doze off for a while. Then, I heard a buzz on the Zen bus and the bus began to move at a steady pace. I began to doze again when someone asked, Does this bus go to Arizona? You know, for the price they charge, the Zen bus should go there. But I wasn't sure. I just know that the Zen bus is sometimes in a race and when they raise the flag to start the race, the Zen bus picks up the pace.
